

Thank you for agreeing to Review for 'Science'.

Expert reviewers like you are key to the scientific process and for maintaining the integrity of our journal.

Please carefully review the instructions below.

We require a fast-turn around time of your review – and we need it return to Wally Fulweiler (rwf@bu.edu) and Alex Geisser (ageisser@bu.edu) by 11 am on Tuesday, October 22. We anticipate that you will spend at least 30 minutes but no more than 60 minutes completing this review.

Directions:

1. Read over the manuscript – first a general read.
2. On your second read – consider the following questions:
  - a. Is the major data gap defined?
  - b. Is it clear what data were collected and why they were collected?
  - c. Are the data presented in a clear and compelling way?
  - d. Do you agree with the authors assessment?
  - e. Does the manuscript follow the flow, template required for Science?
3. What is the most interesting/compelling part of this paper?
4. What is the most important area that needs improvement?

Please provide a written assessment of questions 2-4. Please send us a word document and we compile and send to authors.
